DECEMBER 2017

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

As this is the last newsletter before the break I would like to wish you all a very happy and safe Christmas.

Geoff James has resigned from the club so we need an interclub co ordinator. Betty has volunteered to do this with help from Stephen Moten on a one off basis for the Geelong and VAPS interclubs. We need someone to take on this role on a more permanent basis commencing next year with our competition with the Ballarat Photography Group. We are also going to need a new President to take over after next years AGM as due to work commitments and a new baby Rebecca hasn't the time to devote to this role at the moment. She is happy to stay on as Vice President if needed. Please give these roles your consideration and help out if you can.

We went to the opening of Chris Crossley's exhibition at the Back Space Gallery and it was a pleasant evening with drinks, nibbles and live music. It was a memorable and thought provoking selection of images and by the time we left he had sold one image. The exhibition runs until the 17th of December.

Don't forget to upload your EDPI's and EDPI's of prints for the February competition on or before the 24th of January and get your prints to Frank or Anne Carroll by this date.

I have organised an outing to Bullarto Railway Station to photograph some vintage cars belonging to Janette Richards Dad on Sunday the 18th of February. More details to follow closer to the day. A weekend camp is organised for the 16th and 17th of March at the Great Ocean Road Caravan Park Peterborough. There are great opportunities to photograph the rugged coastline of this area. If you would like to book a cabin it might pay to get in early to avoid disappointment.

The Wildlife Photographer Of The Year Exhibition is on at the National Wool Museum 26 Moorabool St Geelong from the 1st of December 2017 to the 13th of May 2018. If there is enough interest we could have an outing to this event in April and take the opportunity to take in some evening photography in the Geelong area.

Don't forget the clubs break up barbecue and get together at Murray and Judy Mc Eachern's house 21 Rathkeale Ave Mount Helen on Wednesday the 6th of December commencing at 6pm. BYO food, drinks, plates, chair etc.

Trevor Bibby President.

Interclub Feb 2018

We need your selection of images.
Both edpi and large prints.
Maximum of 5 edpi and 5 large prints.
No later than the January Bbq 24th January.
Please upload your selected images via the clubs website.

The competition online is called
Ballarat Geelong Pre Selection 2018.
You can upload your images any time from now.

The committee would really appreciate your complete support with this, so we have the best images available and you never know this year may be the year we break the loosing drought.

St John of God Hospital

Need our help

St John of God Rehabilitation ward has a large blank wall that they would like to decorate with members images. Large prints either mounted or unmounted that you no longer have a need for would be suitable. Landscape, Nature images , anything suitable for a hospital environment, therefore no nudes or creepy images please.

If you could bring them to the BBQ I will arrange collection and pass them onto Anne Pipkorn (ex club member and St John God staff member).

Thanks Betty Bibby

Final Call for images no later than the Dec 6th
BBQ.

REMEMBER

When making a purchase, show your Ballarat CameraClub card for discounts from:

- *Radmac and
- *Camera House

*Momento Pro - when ordering on line, mention you belong to the Ballarat Camera Club.

Another Reminder

When you submit your images for the Inter-Club competition with Geelong, please read point 11 of the New Guidelines for Interclub Selection. These Guidelines were emailed to all members. If you cannot find your copy, please request another be sent.
